

Digital Storytelling Rubric

SAISD Digital Storytelling Initiative

Score Level		1 limited understanding	2 incomplete understanding	3 complete and accurate understanding	4 complete and accurate understanding
Points: Criteria:		__ Points	__ Points	__ Points	__ Points
	Problem Solution Narrative Structure McKeough	Story not coordinated within PSNS	Contains action sequence related to a problem	PSNS contains a problem with at least 2 event sequences but does not resolve problem	Completed prior to digital story; problem identified, events moves story along, content used to resolve problem
	Narrator's Point of view	No narration point of view, each character tells the story from their perspective	No clear point of view and may move between first and third person narration.	Clear narration point of view, either 1 st or 3 rd	Describing point of view, setting, characters, and transitions/changes, moves plot forward to resolution
	Characters ' Internal responses, feelings, emotions	Simple or no feelings identified	Simple feeling and simple action sequence coordinated	Character feeling associated with action sequences	Coordinated with multiple feelings of the characters
	Speech / Voice	Monotone, no rhythm or energy in voice pattern	Lapses from rhythmic pattern to everyday speech pattern	Rhythmic speech pattern	Consistent speech patterns; rhythmic pattern
	Pacing and timing	Story is too long or too short, and the flow needs work	Some elements of the story are either too long or too short which effects the flow of the story	Story moves through events, but editing for the flow is needed.	Story appropriate length, and flows consistently throughout with appropriate pauses
	Images	Uses too many or too few images and does not add to the story	Uses images that do not enhance the narration	Uses images that are aligned from PSNS	Uses at least 5 purposefully selected [aligned from PSNS] images that add to meaning of story
	Soundtrack	Music distracts, or does not enhance the narration	Music is background and does not enhance the narration	Music enhances the narration.	Music enhances the narration, point of view, setting, characters, and transitions/changes
	Overall Story	Rudimentary	Limited	Adequate story	Rich story, completed prior to digital story; problem identified, events moves story along, content used to resolve problem
/ 100 Points					